Hello to all our Cuddington families,

What a fantastic first week back we have all had and all made even better by the glorious sunshine

☺ Please take time to look at our Twitter feed (@cuddingtonpri) to see all of the learning that has taken place each day;

- Investigating the properties of materials and life cycles in science
- Creating artwork in the style of Louis Masai, Henri Rousseau and Edward Hopper
- Identifying and naming all the continents of the world
- Cycling on pedal bikes and balance bikes
- Learning how to achieve speed when running
- Macaws and Puffins have visited our school pond
- Learning how to create Power Points in Computing
- A special delivery of chicken eggs to hatch out in Reception (5 more sleeps they tell me)!

This is all in addition to our children engaging in Maths and English learning each day too.

During the week, I have worked with the head teachers from the other 2 MAT schools to develop our Relationships and Health Education policy. There are statutory aspects to this as defined by the Department for Education. We also need to consult with our parents, so please look out for this important document next week.

Yesterday, I met with our PTA committee about fundraising for our school. Given all the constraints through our COVID risk assessment, they are very limited to what they can do, but the lottery which has been organised by them has proven to be successful so far. We currently have over 100 tickets sold, but would love some more. Please follow the link below to sign up;

If you have any unwanted clothing, please remember to take it to the clothing bins at Vale Royal Abbey, as this is also supporting the addition of funds to our PTA.

Current funds are enabling us to develop an art studio in school and the purchase of more books to support high quality reading experiences across the curriculum. The PTA are also purchasing some amazing artwork developed by Miss Knight which captures what our curriculum is 'all about' at Cuddington (an example of this artwork is on the curriculum page on the website – take a look)!

Well, it looks like a very pleasant week ahead, so I hope you all enjoy the sunshine while you can. Happy weekend to you all when it arrives,

Kind regards,
Mrs S Mills
